

STORIES of God's Love in Action

2010

STATE OF THE MINISTRY
REPORT

As we were writing this report, the story of Mr. Ted Williams, the homeless person from Ohio with an impressive announcer's voice, was making national headlines like few stories dealing with homelessness ever do. This past year, Greensboro's One City/One Book featured The Soloist, the remarkable story of the friendship between a reporter, Steve Lopez, and a gifted homeless person, Nathaniel Ayers.

You don't have to go to the national media to find such stories. They happen each and every day here at Greensboro Urban Ministry. Just look at the 2010 William Mangum Holiday Honor Card, "Everybody Needs Somebody," and the friendship between volunteer Randy Judd and formerly homeless person Howard Webb. In the following Urban Ministry 2010 Annual Report, you will find impressive numbers and statistics about people being served and people serving people. Numbers and statistics impress on our minds, but stories touch our hearts and souls. We hope you will find both the statistics and the stories found in this report to be helpful in better understanding the accomplishments of Greensboro Urban Ministry over the past year. We also hope this understanding will inspire you to continue your support of our ministry to bring God's love in action to the needy of the Greater Greensboro area.

Randy's Story

VOLUNTEER

Standing in the cold beside the small, empty fire pit at the camp, it is hard to imagine that anyone could live under these conditions. The muddy ground is partially covered by old discarded rugs, making a path to the seating of a broken office chair and a large log, long stripped of its limbs and bark. The kitchen is a single pot, the sleeping quarters marked by tarps draped to form a tent.

Thus is the scene at a homeless camp here in Greensboro and "home" to a man who happened to be homeless. He weathered the rain, the cold, and the snow without complaint, but thanks to the help of volunteer Randy Judd, he no longer has to endure the elements. Now, he has a home.

Randy Judd began working with the homeless just 10 months ago and was moved by the individuals he met. He began befriending those who are so often ignored and disregarded, convinced that he could make a difference in their lives and improve their living conditions.

On this day, Randy visits the former camp of Don Ames before checking in on him at his new home. Don, an ex-machinist from Michigan, came to the south hoping to find work in the furniture industry when he lost his job in 2008. With no money and no job, Don found himself homeless, but not helpless.

A talented woodworker, Don set up a workshop at his camp, complete with solar power. There he fashioned wooden crosses and ornaments out of wood. Hearing about this amazing set-up, Randy asked to see Don's camp and was struck by the intelligence and ingenuity Don displayed. As Randy said, "It didn't make sense that Don was homeless. I just couldn't understand it."

By utilizing his personal connections and helping Don sell his woodwork, Randy facilitated Don's move from the camp to a house — complete with a basement workshop! Now Don plans to help other homeless artisans transition off the streets and find careers that utilize their talents. And Randy? He met two more men when visiting the camp today and is off to find firewood for them.

Don Ames, Carli Guanciale, and Randy Judd

Patty's* Story

GRACE COMMUNITY
WINTER EMERGENCY (WE!)

A guest at the Grace Community WE site off and on for two winters, Patty was a lifetime alcoholic who began drinking at the age of fourteen. She would talk about wanting to change and how she knew that God had a "plan for her life." But addiction is a hard thing to fight and Patty always went back to the same group of friends and bad habits.

Indeed, God had a plan for Patty. When medical issues forced Patty to realize her lifestyle and addictions were killing her, she decided to go home to her sister and brother where she was reunited with her son and her grandson. Now, instead of getting up each morning and drinking a beer just to get through the day, Patty looks forward to spending Sunday's with her grandson and taking him to Sunday School. Serving as a living example, Patty teaches her grandson that "all things are possible with GOD."

Stevie's* Story

PATHWAYS | BEYOND PATHWAYS
EMERGENCY ASSISTANCE

Having left home at the age of thirteen, Stevie began abusing crack cocaine at the age of eighteen. To support her addiction, she turned to prostitution and drug trafficking, doing “whatever it took” to obtain drugs and feed herself. For over twenty years, Stevie lived a lifestyle that she admitted made her unhappy and that she disliked.

Throughout those dark years, Stevie says that Greensboro Urban Ministry remained a “big encouragement in my life when I didn’t have anywhere to go.” She was a resident of Weaver House and then moved to Pathways when she found out she was pregnant with her daughter. After the birth, she received clothing from the clothing bank and the moral support that she needed from the dedicated staff in the Emergency Assistance Program. With every visit, she says that concerned staff would encourage her to quit using and to turn her life around. And, eventually, this persistence paid off.

At the age of 41, she stopped abusing cocaine, returned home, and was married for the first time. She says that she is focused on seeing her grandchildren grow up and on obtaining her own GED. She still returns to Urban Ministry, which she says “feels like home,” for fellowship with those who never lost hope that she would be able to change her story, that she could quit using, and that she could turn her life around.

Wayne's Story

POTTER'S HOUSE
FOOD BANK

A five year employee of Greensboro Urban Ministry, Wayne Darrell Campbell understands our clients better than most because he once was one himself. Having first come to GUM in 1984 as a client of Weaver House, Darrell, an addict at the time, says that he didn’t know how to care for himself and that he “thanks God for Greensboro Urban Ministry because they fed me, provided me with clothing, and a place to stay.”

Over the next thirty years Darrell was a frequent client of Weaver House, coming to stay there when the allure of drugs led him down the path to homelessness. He says that he always left with a job and a place to stay. Finally, with the help of God, Darrell was able to stay clean. He credits God and Greensboro Urban Ministry with his sobriety, stating that “Greensboro Urban Ministry provided me with a lot of the necessities that I needed to get me started on the right way.”

Potter's House Community Kitchen

Serves a free, well-balanced, nutritious meal each day

- 51,655 breakfasts served
- 151,468 lunches served
- 44,286 dinners served
- 247,409 total meals served

Greensboro Food Bank

Food is collected and distributed to Urban Ministry's feeding programs and other non-profits that serve the hungry

- 1,125,958 pounds of food donated from grocery stores, food handlers, restaurants, caterers, food drives, farmers' markets, congregations and individuals
- 13,951 food bags given to Emergency Assistance Program serving 22,250 people

Now, Wayne ministers to others in need by serving as the Potter's House Chef Supervisor, cooking for the hungry and witnessing to others through his actions.
